

TELESOCIAL CALLS

Don't let Social Distancing become Social Isolation.

If you would like to receive a friendly social phone call twice a week to check-in, share your experiences, and just chat, sign up today and we will match you with a volunteer.

Online:

Phone:

(818) 446-9538

"It was a relief on both sides, to be able to share our feelings about the present situation... sharing how we are coping with the challenges and how we are dealing with it... At the end of the call, we thanked each and said that this was pretty cool." - Andree, TeleSocial Participant

L.A. Works is a 501(c)3 nonprofit, volunteer action center that creates and implements hands-on community service projects throughout the greater Los Angeles area. We strive to empower Angelenos to address pressing social issues through volunteerism and community collaborations.
