A. Response from Superintendent/President on DPAC recommendation(s), if any: There is no additional response from the Superintendent/President on DPAC’s recommendation regarding full-time faculty.

V. Agenda
A. Softening of Enrollment:
   • Concept - Early Summer Session Pilot: DPAC Chair Designee Teresita Rodriguez reported that there is not enough time to resolve the issues related to the concept of an early start summer session. Other enrollment strategies will continue to be explored.
• Other Enrollment Strategies: A discussion of other enrollment strategies included the following ideas:

  - Academic Affairs and department chairs consider the possibility of faculty accepting more students in their classes with appropriate compensation for oversized classes.
  - Increase on-line courses
  - Using existing infrastructure to offer special programs, for example MCAT, LCAT
  - Attract a new market by offering CEUs
  - Determine why students are taking fewer than 12 units
  - Develop schedule more efficiently with a holistic approach, consider scheduling intelligence software
  - Develop incentives for students to enroll in more units
  - Learn from other districts
  - Trade programs
  - Reach out to large groups of people who might not be thinking about attending SMC
  - Do an analysis of first week drops
  - Market to active service members and veterans
  - Encourage public transportation
