School of Nursing
www.nursing.ucla.edu

The UCLA School of Nursing is highly ranked nationally and is internationally renowned for faculty research and publications. The School of Nursing offers a Prelicensure program leading to a Bachelor of Science degree. The Prelicensure program admits freshman and junior-level transfer students and focuses on managing both individuals and population-based cohorts within an acute care hospital or medical center. Applicants are required to submit a supplemental application available at www.nursing.ucla.edu.

School of the Arts and Architecture www.arts.ucla.edu

Headed by a faculty of renowned visual artists and performers, the School of the Arts and Architecture is a highly regarded center for creative expression and research. The curriculum combines practical training in visual and performing mediums with a broad-based liberal arts education. Students enjoy a variety of opportunities to perform and exhibit on campus. Applications are accepted from freshmen and junior-level transfer students. Upon receipt of the application for admission, the individual department will require you to submit supplemental application materials [e.g. portfolios, auditions, etc.].

Henry Samueli School of Engineering and Applied Science
