- Report on the purchase of real property at 1738 Pearl Street, Santa Monica
The District has been engaged in the purchase of houses on Pearl Street since the 1980's. The college has been able to move noninstructional functions to the houses which provides space on campus for instructional purposes. In addition, it provides a barrier between the college and the neighborhood. The District has complied with the City by maintaining the residential appearance of the houses while remodeling the interior to meet the needs of the program or services that are housed there.
- Review of Measure U Construction Projects Timeline
The Measure U Construction Projects Timeline was reviewed. Some projects have been renamed (#11-14th and Pico Site, and #14-Bundy Campus Improvements). This chart will be adjusted to reflect changes due to funding and construction priorities.
- Review of Measure U Project List
The Measure U Project List was reviewed. There is $13.255 million left in first bond issue. The District is waiting to see what happens with the State economy before deciding about another bond issue.

SMC Business Building Room 111

- The Committee accepted the resignation of Graham Pope.
- The Committee confirmed Linda Sullivan as Chair and elected Paul Leoni to Vice-Chair.
- Review of Measure U Construction Projects Timeline
The projects are listed in priority order as determined by the Board of Trustees. The list will be adjusted as projects are completed and/or reordered.
- Review of Measure U Project List
- Review of Bond Sales
- Facilities Update
- SMC was placed on the Chancellor's Office "watchlist" because reserves are less than 5 percent. SMC has the second highest paid faculty in the state, and the lowest funding per FTE. That combined with increased costs and drastically reduced funding in 2002-03 resulted in the District falling below the 5% reserve required by the Chancellor's Office. The District will be trying to get back to 5% reserve through growth and equalization, and restore course offerings starting in the summer.
