• Ee Lin:

The Equity Center will host another event later this month emphasizing simplicity and empowerment. We're also exploring ways to enhance intuition and mental health, tentatively scheduled for Wednesday

• Justin:

I sent an email about global citizenship requirements. Please review and share your thoughts by Wednesday noon. I'll discuss it in our meeting from 3 to 5. Also, International Day is Thursday.

• David:

A brief update on Finance Committee proposals after a year of work. Gratitude for eight months of collaboration. One final stage remains. Packed agenda: 25 items, nearly $700,000 total. The meeting starts at 11 a.m. sharp, aiming to finish within three hours. Please be punctual. Due to time constraints, some items may be tabled.

• Cecilia:

Working on a technological resources student survey with DPAC, scheduled for discussion this Thursday. We aim to finalize the survey and gather responses by the end of May. Next week, we'll provide brief updates via email and share results. Also, we'll ensure all semester reports and presentations are accessible via Microsoft Teams this week, aiming for a five-minute interview session for clarity.

XI. Student Trustee Report – None.

XII. Advisor Reports-

• Thomas:

We'll hold a special election soon and need your involvement. Also, please help promote our Election. Many events are coming up, including workshops and celebrations. Join the skill-building workshop tomorrow on effective dialogue and debate.
