The transfer review process at USC focuses primarily on both academic performance and the selection of courses that the student will have completed by the time they enter USC. This includes meeting our minimum Math and Writing requirement, foreign language if required by the USC degree, and satisfactory progress towards completing General Education (GE) and/or any major-related coursework.

We encourage you to refer to our Transferring to USC brochure for detailed information about these courses. Embedded within, you will also find a helpful transfer planning worksheet.

Prospective transfer applicants may also find both articulation agreements and articulation histories at this website.

Along with your application, you will need to submit:

- A final high school or secondary school transcript.
- Official transcripts from ALL two-year and four-year colleges and/or universities that you have or are currently attending.
- Some majors require an audition, portfolio, letters of recommendation or writing samples.
- International students must also submit the Financial Statement of Personal or Family Support along with their application.

Additional Deadlines:

Some talent-based programs at USC have a December 1 deadline for all applicants - transfer as well as first-year students.

- BFA majors in the School of Dramatic Arts
- BFA majors in the School of Cinematic Arts
- All majors in the Thornton School of Music
- Kaufman School of Dance
